My dear Mr Visvesvaraya,

Thank you for your letter.

I am glad that you are going on a few days' leave, for I know how well you deseve a little respite from the worries inseparable from your office, but at the same time, let me tell you how much you will be missed by me here. I trust you will have a really nice time of it in Ceylon, and that you will come back soon with renewed health and vigour.

The proposals you sent up for the transaction of business during your absence are quite suitable, and you must have received Mr Campbell's telegram conveying my approval of them.

With all good wishes,

Subs DJ/4/11.
